

Program “Cool Planning - Changing Climate and Our Urban Future”

17:00 Intake

17:30 Welcome, introduction and motivation

Fredéric Raynaud (Referee perspectiveLab)
Paul Vermeylen (Chairman FUP - For Urban Passion)
Griet Geerinck (ISOCARP Belgium)

17:45 A larger frame for planning: challenges of climate change and the third industrial revolution

Dr. Annette Kuhk (humanarc research) presents main insights from the ISOCARP-keynote speeches

18:30 Constituting elements in a systemic approach to cool planning (society, technology, governance,..)

Dirk Van de Putte (Urban and Territorial Development Advisor) presents the results of the several conference topics at ISOCARP.

18:50 Contemporary approaches to cool planning policies and practices in the three regions in Belgium

The debate starts with insights from 4 planning professionals, and is moderated by dr. Annette Kuhk (director humanarc).

Climate change and changes in spatial structures in Flanders (cf. CcASPAR research project ).

Pitch by Guy Vloebergh (senior spatial planner, Omgeving)

How to make Brussels cooler: climate issues and environmental challenges in spatial policies in the Brussels Capital Region

Pitch by Gérard Bonhomme (project manager - territorial strategy, perspective.brussels)

Environmental and global warming issues in spatial planning in the Walloon Region.

Pitch by Jaques Teller (Professor at LEMA, Université de Liège)

A master plan to optimize existing and to attract new activities on site , based in a step-by-step, flexible, environmentally regenerative redevelopment of the Abattoir site.

Pitch by Jo Huygh (Architect and independent consultant in urban and real estate development - Abattoir)